CORAM : R.M.S.KHANDEPARKAR &
DR.D.Y.CHANDRACHUD, JJ

DATED : 8TH FEBRUARY, 2007

P.C.

1. The learned advocate appearing for Respondent Nos.1 to 3 states that in view of the provisions of law comprised under Section 78(1)(A) of the Bombay Industrial Relations Act, 1946, the matter relates only to the reliefs which are sought to be asked in paragraphs (a) to (d), regarding the powers of the Labour Court, they do not press for those reliefs in the present proceedings while reserving their right to pursue a remedy in that regard in appropriate proceeding and before appropriate forum. We accept the said statement and in view of the said statement, the learned advocate appearing for the appellant does not press for impleadment of the appellant as party to these proceedings.

2. In view of what has been transpired in the Court during the course of hearing of the matter, nothing survives in the matter. While accepting the statement made on behalf of the learned advocate for the respondents, the appeal is disposed of accordingly. Interim reliefs stand vacated. No order as to costs.
